Transamerica Offers Employers Customized Solution for ACA Reporting

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (Nov. 16, 2015) – As 2016 approaches, so do employer deadlines for Affordable Care Act (ACA) reporting requirements. In addition to providing simple solutions that meet voluntary life and supplemental health insurance needs, Transamerica Employee Benefits is dedicated to ensuring that essential ACA reporting resources are available to businesses.

Transamerica now offers employers access to BenefitScape®, an independent, personalized service, enabling them to save valuable time and resources in designing a customized approach that reflects their specific ACA reporting requirements. Given the IRS may impose penalties for failing to file, or for filing incorrect or incomplete information on Forms 1094-C and 1095-C, this cloud-based application ensures employers have access to the support they need. BenefitScape® offers expert guidance in all areas of ACA compliance including, ACA technical support, requirements analysis, business user portal, IRS reporting, and archiving.

“Transamerica is committed to offering the expertise and essential resources to enable employers to successfully navigate and comply with the mandates of the Affordable Care Act,” said Brian Thompson, senior vice president, Transamerica Employee Benefits. “This service takes the guesswork out of the sometimes complex guidelines, enabling employers to keep their focus on achieving key business objectives and meeting year-end goals.”
